

If it is easier, you can do the work in the purple book which was given out.
Challenge 1

Sort Objects

Get Sorting!
Sort objects into groups by colour.

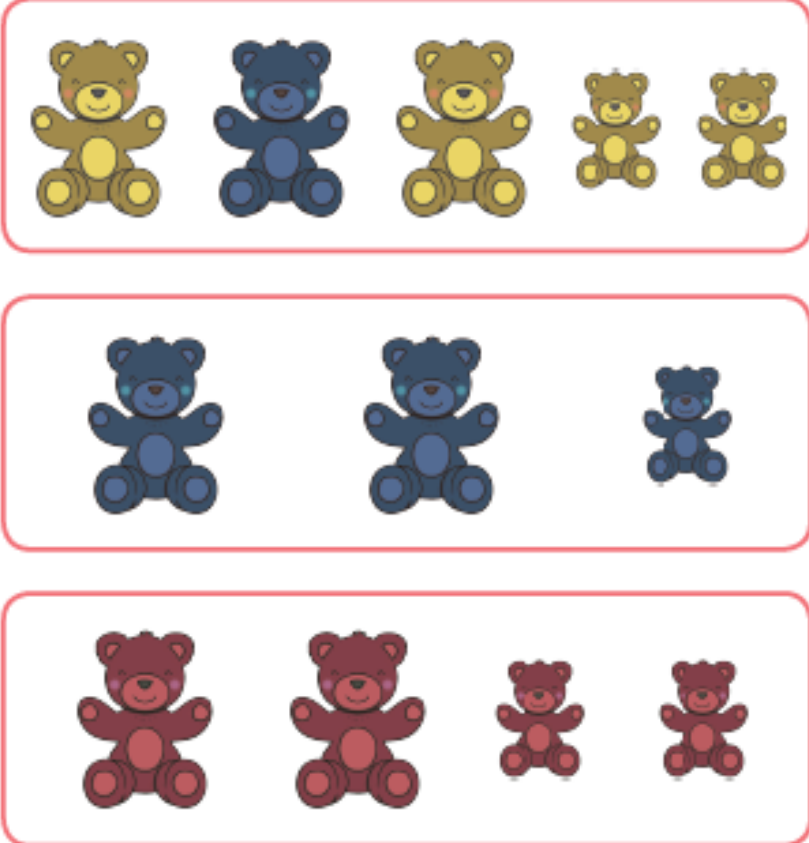

Can you sort the objects in a different way?

twinkl.com

Challenge 2:

Sort Objects

Get Sorting!
Have these objects been sorted correctly?

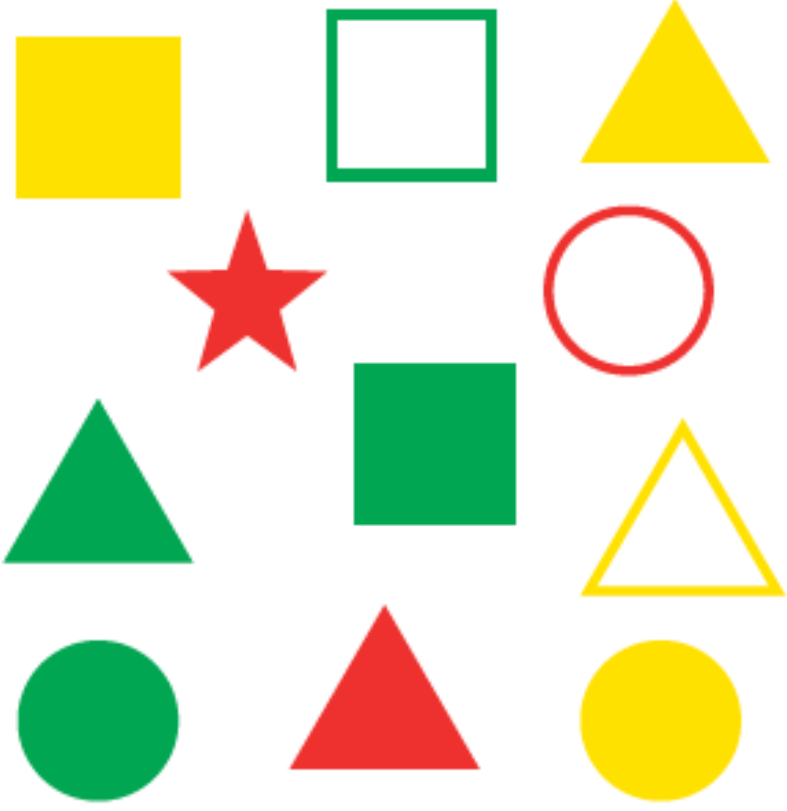

Can you think of another way of sorting these objects?

twinkl.com

If it is easier, you can do the work in the purple book which was given out.
Challenge 3:

Sort Objects

Get Sorting!
Find ways to sort these shapes.

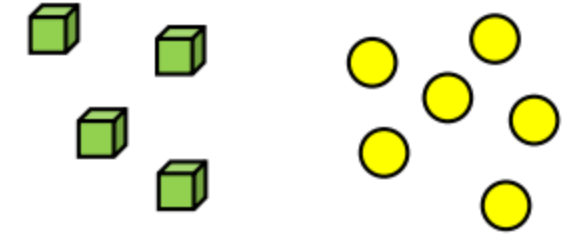

How many different ways can you find?
Does each way make the same number of groups?

twinkl.com

Reasoning problem:

Two children are discussing how some objects have been sorted.

Dora: These objects have been sorted into cubes and counters.

Jack: These objects have been sorted into green and yellow.

Who is correct? Convince me.

I know _____ is correct.

I know _____ is correct because _____.