

Modal Verbs

Modal verbs are used with other verbs to describe how likely something is to happen or to show how certain we are of something happening. For example:

One day the girl might be Queen.

The word 'might' is the modal verb. It indicates that the girl might be the Queen but it isn't definitely going to happen. Below is a list of modal verbs. Write the modal verbs onto the line below according to how strongly they suggest an event might happen.

Adverbs of Possibility

In addition to modal verbs, some adverbs can be used to describe how likely it is that something will happen. These are called 'adverbs of possibility'. Some of the most common adverbs of possibility are:

certainly	definitely	maybe	possibly clearly	obviously	perhaps	probably

Use each word to write a sentence showing how it can be used. For example:

He is definitely coming to the party.

Maybe I'll win the lottery this week.
