

Good morning/ afternoon Green Class,

You will notice that I have not set a daily English task for you to complete today. Instead, we are going to be focusing on the importance of today as part of the Liturgical year (church's calendar) as it is known as 'The Feast of the Ascension'.

Remember, a feast day is a day of celebration for either a special person or event which happened on this day.

The Feast of the Ascension is a celebration of Jesus leaving Earth and being reunited with his Father (God) in heaven.

Task One

Look at the art work below, annotate around the images your thoughts and feelings (remember there is not a correct answer for this as it is YOUR personal opinion). Try and think of different ideas for each of the images.

Task Two

Read the scripture passage below:

So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking him, “Lord, has the time come for you to free Israel and restore our kingdom?”

He replied, “The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

After saying this, he was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see him. As they strained to see him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them. “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday he will return from heaven in the same way you saw him go!”

Task Three

Think about what Jesus’ ascension into heaven means to you. What does it look like? If you are not, why not watch the following clip to help you: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=urUazGDrez0>

Task Four

Using any medium of your choice, create an image which summarises what Jesus’ ascension into heaven means to you. You may wish to use the images from Task One as inspiration. Remember, this is YOUR interpretation so be as artistic and interpretative as you wish.
