

English: Writing

Hello Orange Class, 😊 This week, we are starting a new book. But I am not going to reveal the title of the book till next week. During our 2 writing tasks this week, I am going to give you clues about the story and I want to see if you can predict what story we are going to be looking at for the following weeks.

Today's writing task is looking at the setting of the story. Below are some pictures of where the story is set. I want you to write at least 6 sentences describing what you can see in the setting. Remember lots of adjectives to describe the nouns.

After you have described the settings, I want you to make a prediction on what you think the story could be about or what the story name could be. Remember when we predict, we must use 'because' and evidence from what we see to back up our prediction.

Remember to email me any of your work at: orange@margaretroper.croydon.sch.uk
