

Thursday 14th May 2020.

WALT: To write a letter.

Warm up:

Following on from your 'Wanted' poster from yesterday, I want you to imagine that you are a farmer who has seen the 'Wanted' poster and knows Reginald Rake.

Can you write a letter to explain that you have spotted Reginald and you know where he is? Also write down what Reginald is doing. Think about if Reginald is causing mischief somewhere else or is he now being good?

When writing your letter you will need to include:

- Who your letter is to.
- What Reginald is doing.
- Where Reginald is.
- Whether Reginald is being good or bad.
- Who it is from (make up a name for your farmer).

I look forward to seeing your letters.
