WALT: To design and write your own 'Wanted' Poster.

Can you recall the book I read to you yesterday on our Zoom chat? (Do not worry if you cannot, here is the link to refresh your memory :)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UIHLnnJ-uFc> – The Scarecrows' Wedding – Give us a story!

A lot of stories often have a good guy (goodie) and a bad guy (baddie). Firstly can you make a list of goodie and baddie traits. Here are some examples to get you started, decide which ones are for the goodies and which ones are for the baddies:

hero, careless, kind, selfless, naughty and mean.

Which characters from 'The Scarecrows Wedding' would be described as a goodie and which ones would be described as a baddie? Why?

Was Reginald Rake really a baddie or did he just make a simple mistake?

Looking at the above picture, when Reginald Rake leaves poor Betty in a burning field, Reginald made a mistake. We all make mistakes at times but Reginald's reaction was wrong. Instead of running away and leaving Betty in danger what should Reginald have done?

Today I would like you to design a poster to help find Reginald Rake so that he can come back and say sorry to Betty. You can complete your poster using pens and pencils etc or you can use the computer, you decide!

Try and include:

- A description about his appearance. What does Reginald look like? What is he wearing? What does his hair look like?
- His character traits. What does Reginald like to do?
- Additional information. Why does Reginald need to be found? Are you offering a reward?

I look forward to seeing your 'Wanted' posters to help find Reginald Rake.
