Above is a link for the 5000m Olympic Mens final from 2012, featuring Mo Farah.

Watch the clip carefully then choose which activity you want to do:

1. Can you write a sports report for this race and include a mock interview with Sir Mo, his wife and maybe his old PE teachers? Don't forget a fun headline, like "Not So Slow Mo" etc.

OR 2. Write a paragraph describing the emotions he would have been going through as he crossed the finish line. Can you imagine winning a gold medal? Who would you thank?

Both pieces of writing could have accompanying pictures or photographs.

Good luck!
