

Task 1:

Sit back and enjoy the final part of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/english-a-midsummer-nights-dream-8-a-wedding-play/zjm6mfr>

Task 2:

Complete the sequencing activity below. Number the boxes from 1 (first to happen) -9 (last to happen)

Task 3:

Now more than ever it is important to think ahead and what you hope to achieve, this can be short term e.g. over the next couple of weeks/ months or it may be long term e.g. over the next couple of years or even when you are an adult.

You are going to write your own short play around the theme of dreams (whatever this means to you).

Use the planning sheet below to help structure your play.

- 1) Consider your answers to the following questions
 - a) What do I wish to be when I grow up?
 - b) What do I wish to own?
 - c) Where do I wish to travel to?
 - d) What else do I wish to have achieved e.g. do you wish to go to university? Do you wish to have a particular job/ profession?

- 2) Use the following subheadings to help plan your play

Characters

Setting/s

Plot:

Beginning

Middle

Ending

If it helps: draw the main moments from your play below (Story Plan)