

Green Class English
13.7.20-17.7.20

This weeks' English tasks are focused around the theme of summer. Please read the instructions on each slide carefully as this is your work for the whole week. Aside from slide 2 which must be completed today (13.7.20) all of the other tasks can be completed in any order.
Enjoy!

Complete on 13.7.20
then pick one other slide of your choice to complete today.

What does the word
'summer' make you think of? Include as many ideas as you can as this will help you later on too! (feel free to add more lines!)

Plan and then write a short adventure story set in summer.

Opening- introduce the problem/ task to fulfil

Exploration- how the characters initially try to solve the problem

Conflict- e.g. fight between hero and villain

Resolution- what compromise is made or how is the villain defeated?

Ending

Don't forget:
Setting
Characters

Spend 2 days on this task

Write to describe

1) Draw a picture of what summer means to you.

2) Select one part of your picture which you like the best. Plan a description (imagine you are painting this picture in the reader's mind) Remember to include as much detail as you can using the 5Ws and your senses.

Challenge- can you include each of the following: personification e.g. the sand smiled as the girl ran across it, metaphor e.g. The sky was a bright blue blanket, with no clouds in sight and a simile e.g. the sea roared like a lion as the boat passed across its shores

3) Write one paragraph describing this part of your picture in as much detail as you can.

Imagine you attend Margaret Roper's Summer Fete but something unexpected happens...(this should be something good e.g. a surprise). You are a reporter who is on the scene (at the fete), minutes after this unexpected event takes place.

Plan (using slide 6 to help you) and then write an article for the front page of a newspaper where you document what happened.

Please see attached a newspaper report template

Headline

Who is the report about?

What is the report about?

When did the event happen?

Where did the event happen?

Eye witness reports (what did they see, hear, think etc.?)

Why did the event happen?

Using all of the ideas you have already thought of, write a poem about summer. This can be in a style of your choice. Look at the ideas below to help make your mind up.

an acrostic poem using a word of your choice e.g. beach, volleyball, ice cream etc. This poem DOES NOT have to rhyme.
