Your Local Authority will also require a Common Application Form (CAF). This applies whether or not you are resident in the borough of Croydon. The completed CAF should be sent to your own Local Authority.

Please ensure that you provide the following:

- A certified copy of the baptism certificate or evidence of reception into the Catholic Church including the Ordinariate or a Church in union with Rome.
- Priest's Reference(s)
- Original Utility Bill (proof of residence)

To derive full benefit from education in a Catholic school, the family should give every example and encouragement in the practice of the Catholic religion.

It is essential that your application is supported by a reference from your Parish Priest. If you have been resident in your parish for less than a year, please also obtain a reference from your previous Parish Priest. If you regularly attend mass at more than one parish, you must obtain a reference from both parishes. Please contact your Parish for details of how to obtain a reference.

Once you have completed this Supplementary Information Form, please sign the declaration below and return to Margaret Roper School by 15th January in the year of admission.
